

Golden Paragraph

Dr. Sotirios Karagiannis is a Senior Manager, Head of the Investment Incentives Pillar of the Global Investment & Innovation Incentives (Gi3) service line – Tax & Legal department at Deloitte Greece, with more than 15 years of professional experience. He helps firms to grow by implementing their strategic goals and investment plans. He has extensive professional experience in financial and business advisory for funding firms and leading large-scale investments under State Aid regulations (Development Law, Strategic Investments, Recovery and Resilience Fund, ESPA), as well as in providing services for the use of Tax Incentives (R&D, energy efficiency, water saving & climate mitigation). During his professional career, he also gained a lot of expertise in the provision of consulting services to public authorities, he was a team member of several European cross-border research projects, and he participated as a team member to the technical assistance of the Recovery and Resilience Facility Agency-Ministry of Finance and Enterprise Greece. He is mainly involved in the whole process of a project's life cycle.

He is Certified Economist and Ph.D. graduate in Applied Economics from the University of Peloponnese (Greece) with research interests in Empirical Corporate Finance, Financial Derivatives and Sustainable Tourism. He publishes in high-rated journals, top press media and has lecturing experience in Econometrics and Financial Management. He holds a M.Sc. in Finance and Management from the University of Essex (U.K.) and a B.Sc. in Mathematics from the University of Patras (Greece).

Moreover, he is a Supervisor of doctoral studies at New York College (Greece), Research Associate at the Research Centre of Economic Analysis (Wilfrid Laurier University, Canada) and Visiting Expert at the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, Department of Business Administration.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/dr-sotiris-karagiannis/>